

SCOOTERS OF BELLINGHAM CLUB MEMBER APPLICATION

Scooters of Bellingham
Est. 2004

Our goal is for all club members to have a good time with others who share the same passion for scootering!

To become an S.O.B. Club Member* you should:

Own and ride a scooter at least 125cc's, but no more than 250cc's, and have a valid motorcycle endorsement on one's driver's license.

Come to the club meetings, rides, and gatherings

Attend group rides and organized events to demonstrate your group riding skills.

Participate in, and assist with, the organization of the Hamster Run, our annual rally.

Expectations:

Ability to map out and lead a club group ride.

Have an email address or cell number to share with club to stay in contact.

Be willing to take on tasks for the club and pitch in monetarily to help host or sponsor our annual rally, the Hamster Run.

Annual dues of $20.00 will be collected in January of each year to fund the club's operating expenses, including the rally.

Have a good attitude, have a mechanically sound scooter, be enthusiastic about scootering and the camaraderie of a club culture.

What you get:

As a Scooters of Bellingham member you will receive a club logo patch, adhesive club logo in black or white for your scoot, information about club events via the

You will be able to purchase a club logo t-shirt, (you provide the shirt and pay a small logo screening fee)

As a club member you'll be updated and informed (via scootersofbellingham.org group e-mail) of all area rallies, special events, club meetings, rides and also have a voice in decisions that affect the club's future.

Associate Membership: For those who do not meet the criteria for full membership (e.g., scooter designation or ability to attend meetings, rides, rallies, etc.) but still want to support the club and/or occasionally join rides. Annual dues are $20.00 with the expectation that as an Associate Member you will participate in the annual rally, the Hamster Run. You will receive the same benefits as a full member.

REMEMBER - First and foremost our goal is for all club members to have a good time with others who share the same passion for scootering!
